-Healing Mass Tuesday, August 30th at 7pm,
 Rosary/Chaplet at 6:30pm

From Fr. Adam

In today's Gospel we read: "At the hour you do not expect the son of man will come." These words of Jesus are calling us to be vigilant all the time. As Catholics we know that we have to be prepared for the second coming of the Lord at the end of time. The second meaning of Jesus' words from today's Gospel about His coming in Glory when we least expect is the moment of our death. The truth is that none of us know this hour, and the question for us is will he find us ready? Will he find us being in the state of sanctifying grace that we can receive in the sacrament of reconciliation?

There is a striking reflection on the Lord's coming to each of us that was written years ago by Blessed James Alberione. It speaks very dramatically about the particular judgment that takes place at the moment of our death. Father Alberione writes in part, "In whatever place we die, there shall the judgment-seat be erected, and we shall face it alone, accompanied only by our deeds, good or bad. Christ has no need of witnesses, neither of the devil's accusations nor of the saints' defense of us. He knows all things; He is the all-wise Judge. He sees our minds and the thoughts entertained there. He knows the whole story, in detail, from start to finish. Christ knows every sentiment of our heart their particulars, in all their fine points, in all their intensity. Christ knows every word uttered, from the first moment of our use of reason down to the last time our lips formed a word. Every word is written in the book of life-empty words, holy words, forgotten words.... Christ knows all our most sublime actions as well as the most common, and the worst. He knows how many letters have flowed from our pen and how much labor we have accomplished. He knows every step we have taken, the studies we have pursued, our relationships and correspondence, our daily routine of home life.... Furthermore, the Lord knows how much should have been done.... He knows the degree of health a person had, the degree of intelligence, keenness of mind, memory and ability; the graces given in childhood, youth and adulthood.... There is an eye that sees everything, everywhere, always. There is an ear that hears everything, everywhere and always.... They belong, so to speak, to God.

"What tremendous consolation for good souls... Jesus will remember everything - those victories over our passions, those repressions of angry impulses, that diligence at work.... If the judgment were to take place now, could we say that we have, for the most part, been faithful to God?... Judgment will come. For the sinner it will be a terrible encounter.... And what bliss will flood the faithful soul when he at last meets Jesus....

*It will be the long awaited embrace of friend with Friend."
(Rev. James Alberione, SSP quoted in The Faith We Live by The Daughters of St. Paul, 1969).*

Please pray for me especially this month as I am attending the annual training with my unit at Fort McCoy Wisconsin. I will be back by the end of August. God Bless you all,
Fr. Adam
